

British Marine
Superyacht UK Technical Seminar
9th April 2024 Dickens Inn St Katharine's Dock

10.00	Registration
Morning Session
10.30	Welcome	Chair of Superyacht UK, Ben Geary, Döhle Yachts
10.40	REG code update and amendments - A look at all the amendments to the revised Red Ensign Group Large Yacht code being implemented July 2024	Julian Smith, Cayman Island Shipping Register
11.00	To be confirmed – check back for updates!
11.20	Li Batteries - A follow up from last year's discussion including new clauses from the insurance industry and what this means for superyachts	Adam Jackson, ABL Yachts
11.50	Refreshments Break
Afternoon Session
12.10	Alternative fuels - a look at what new qualifications and crew training is available and what could be needed to cope with alternative fuels on superyachts	Warsash & Solent University
12.30	Helipads and private yachts - New ISO proposal on design and crew training, why it is needed	Maritime Aviation
12.50	Panel discussion on build and refit contract insurance waivers and the inclusion of a waiver of subrogation
13.10	Networking Lunch Sponsored by Laurent Giles Naval Architects
14.40	Carbon foot-printing - Decarbonising the industry more than just propulsion, are your businesses ready? A look at scope 1-3 carbon foot printing.	Speaker to be confirmed, check back for updates
15.00	Measuring a large yachts environmental footprint, why we need to, what tools have been developed and current ISO work on standardising operational footprints.	Alexey Shifman, Water Revolution Foundation
15.20	Refreshments Break
15.50	KEY NOTE Hydrogen production and delivery a new approach	Ben Medland, Drift Energy
16.30	Networking reception and drinks Sponsored by Laurent Giles Naval Architects 	